FEBRUARY 2010

Published quarterly by and for the residents of Wendlebury Oxfordshire Editor: Mike Broun

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

The Parish Council is monitoring the Chiltern Evergreen 3 Project (the railway line between Oxford and Bicester) very closely, paying particular attention to noise levels and potential changes to roads, public footpaths and other routes across the track. We have attended several meetings with Chiltern and met with landowners who are affected by the proposed scheme. We have now written our response in time for the next stage on February 15th and will keep you informed of progress. Anybody who has individual comments, please email directly to consultation@chiltern-evergreen3.co.uk.

Please note that the bus service and timetable operated by Heyfordian have changed - the latest timetables are accessible on their website. We have contacted them and asked them to update the timetables on the bridge and the pub wall. Their website is www.heyfordian.travel/bus_services/.

Wendlebury Parish Council, along with other local parishes, are aware that there has been a lot of frustration about the traffic associated with Bicester Village generally and specifically over the Christmas period. We are liaising closely with other affected parishes and continue dialogue with the various council bodies to try and find some solutions to this – a Facebook site 'I Hate Bicester Village Traffic' now has more than 1400 members and is helping to put pressure on Oxfordshire County Council to do something to ease the traffic. There is also an e-petition on the No. 10 Downing Street website, Number10.gov.uk, with 95 signatures as of January 27th.

The Parish Council are also aware of the poor state of the 'back road' to Wyevale Garden Centre and are in contact with the appropriate council departments to persuade them to spend money on this. They have recently conducted some test diggings and we will continue to push to get the road repaired.

The precept for 2010-2011 has been approved at a total of £4,240, an increase of just £200 over last year, equating to a little over £1 per household. The total level is very low compared to other Cherwell villages, and pays for items such as the noticeboard, lighting in the churchyard, grass cutting as well as making grants to the Youth Club and the Village Hall Committee.

The brook has now been dredged from the Village Hall towards the motorway, and lower boughs have also been removed where needed. This will hopefully improve the speed at which water can flow away at times of heavy rainfall.

The Parish Council is still actively investigating potential land for allotments, in response to considerable interest in the village. Do you know anyone - or maybe you!! - have some land that may be suitable for allotments. Any ideas of potentially suitable land would be gratefully received by the Parish Council.

The new notice board has been ordered, and we are awaiting delivery.

JOB OPPORTUNITY !!

Having been on the Parish Council for something like 15 years, I have decided that it is time to step down. I have loved the time I have been a member of the council and it has really made me feel part of the village.

Consequently we need someone new to join us. If, like me you love living here, then you might be just the person. It needs a bit of time and effort, but all the other councillors are very supportive and together with Mimi our clerk they are a great team.

We deal with issues that include anything from Eco Towns to footpaths and the village clean up, we enter Wendlebury into the Village of the Year competition, we try and act in the best interests of where we live and make sure that everyone's views are listened to. Our budget is small, but that does not mean that we don't make as much noise as we can about things that concern us. There are four meetings a year, one annual meeting and occasional times when we meet informally.

The major issues that affect Wendlebury are traffic, flooding and planning applications. You don't have to have specific experience about any of these to join, but you do need enthusiasm, have time to read reports and be prepared to learn enough to have an informed opinion on the issues that we handle.

If you are interested, please do get in touch with me; either knock on my door or phone me on 244898.

I am going to stay on until our next meeting in April, but then I will say my goodbyes, so we need to hear from you as soon as possible!

SNOW REMOVAL HELP

Many thanks to John Miller who very kindly ploughed the snow from the entrance to and exit from the village onto the A41.

WENDLEBURY W.I. 50TH YEAR

January 2010 is our 50th birthday. As it is so near to Christmas we are putting off celebrating until May when we hope ex-members will join us.

What is the W.I.?

In 1897 Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless, a Canadian farmer's daughter, whose first baby had died (largely, she felt, because of her own ignorance of hygiene and infant feeding), gave a talk to an audience of 100 women at Stoney Creek, Ontario, urging that lectures and demonstrations in domestic science and home crafts be made available to them. This led to the formation of Stoney Creek WI,.

The first WI in the United Kingdom was formed at Llanfair P.G. in North Wales in September 1915, and in the same year Singleton (West Sussex) became the first English WI to sign the rules with Wallisdown, (Dorset) a close second.

In 1948 Denman College, Oxfordshire, was opened and thus the WI's had their own adult education college. LIVE AND LEARN (NFWI 1970) tells its story.

By October 1975 there were 419,014 members, 9,294 Women's Institutes and 63 County and Island Federations.

Meetings today are for meeting new people and learning from the variety of talks we have.

How has Wendlebury W.I. changed?

Then – few women worked, there was no village hall, we met in the Red Lion or rooms in villagers' houses. Then members referred to each other as Miss or Mrs. So-and-So. We did more for the village, raising funds for a Village Hall, greeting new villagers, making sure the elderly or sick had hot meals. Average age was about mid 30's.

Now - most of the above probably still goes on, but as individuals, not as a group. With a village hall came many more clubs and activities which catered for peoples' special interest and didn't need to be under the umbrella of the W.I. As nationally (a little over 200,000 members now) numbers dropped. With more women working, more television, more choice, etc. it doesn't appeal to the younger women. Now average age is 60 in Wendlebury and more in other W.I.s.

Will there be a Wendlebury W.I. in another 50 years?

Who knows? But the future is optimistic. Sadly. today, people are put into slots; teenagers want to be together, young mums want to be together, pensioners are left to themselves. This is understandable but mixed aged groups also have so much more to offer each other. The reason I say the future is optimistic is, Wendlebury. though very slowly, has been growing. You lose some; members move away, health reason or it simply doesn't suit their needs. You gain some, new people move to the village and we now have several members from Bicester, even though there is a Bicester W.I. Nationally there are more new W.I.s forming and younger women are now joining. So maybe?

WENDLEBURY GARDENING CLUB

Snowdrops emerging battered but unbowed after this old fashioned winter, daffs and crocuses sending up spearheads, can we really believe in spring? To-day an intrepid though possibly foolhardy primrose popped out so we are confidently putting together our 2010 programme.

The January AGM was postponed as we felt the last thing our members wanted was to turn out on icy roads. Also, it has given us the chance to re-arrange the mini-tour, the first one having gone pear-shaped.

The AGM will now be at the February meeting (16th 7.15pm) in the Village Hall. We look forward to welcoming members and anyone interested in joining us - a good time, as we use it as an opportunity - not only to take subs - but to meet for a chat and June and Mike will once more take us down memory lane with a recap of last year's outings.

A full programme of events will be hot off the press (DV) and subs remain at £2 pp or £3 family .so, do join us.

Happy and successful gardening in 2010!
